Class Poem

Looking forward to our goal,
We lift our eyes as new sights unfold.

Onward and upward we must travel,
Rejoicing and resting on each new level.

We press ever forward with vigor and pride
With loyal true friends close by our side.

Always aware of love and care
Thankful for those who were willing to share.

As our new horizon comes into view,
Hopes are high and hearts ring true.

YOU'LL NEVER WALK ALONE

When you walk through a storm,

Keep your chin up high,

And don't be afraid of the dark.

At the end of the storm is a golden sky

And the sweet silver song of the lark.

Walk through the wind, walk on through the rain

Tho' your dreams be tossed and blown.

Walk on, walk on, with hope in your heart

And you'll never walk alone,

You'll never walk alone.

The Class Of '58

As we, the Class of '58, come to the end of our high school career, we look back over our twelve long years of hard work with priceless memories. We think of the many wonderful times we had while we were still under the leadership of our elementary teachers.

In the eighth grade, with the assistance of Mrs. R. C. White, each of us shared the experience of touring our state capital and also attending court in Asheboro.

Finally we found ourselves in high school. As freshmen, and with Miss Edith Rollins as our guide, we managed to find our places in this new atmosphere. This year we toured the Coble Dairy plant in Lexington and the Coble Dairy Farms.

After a short rest period we returned to, what now seemed very familiar, our regular line of work, but with a great determination to work harder.

It really seemed great to be juniors. Our dreams were now becoming very real. With Mrs. Leo Rich to direct our year's activities, we began by ordering our class rings. It took ages for them to get here, but finally they arrived.

It was now time to work hard selling those magazine subscriptions. This we did, because we wanted to make that long awaited Junior-Senior banquet a huge success.

Another dream which came true was the Daisy Chain. After hours of hard work and fun, we produced two beautiful daisy chains through which the seniors marched.

A very short summer sped by and we were Seniors at last! With Mrs. Guy Lane by our side we knew that our year's undertakings would be successful.

Now came the time for ordering and selling things--all sorts of things. We had to work hard for that trip to Washington. Our calling cards and invitations were ordered also.

As we near the end of our high school road, we wish to express our most sincere thanks to our grade mothers, our principal, our teachers, and our parents. Without their love, patience, kindness, and understanding we could never have attained this great step in our lives.

Last Will And Testament

We, the Class of 1958 being fully aware of the fact that we will soon be leaving our beloved Alma Mater, do make and sign this our last will and testament, hoping thereby to settle all disputes that might arise after our departure.

Article I

To our parents we leave our gratitude for their helpful guidance, love, and understanding which have guided us through the years.

Article II

To our principal and faculty we leave a grateful "THANKS" for their patience and helpfulness which have played a great part in making our school years a success.

Article III

To the Juniors we leave our title "Dignified Seniors", also all the joys and sorrows that go along with being Seniors. Since they will be occupying our homeroom next year we leave them everything we leave by mistake (our addresses also in case they find anything of value).

Article IV

To the Sophomores we leave all of our hidden abilities with sincere hopes that they will be able to find them. We certainly couldn't.

Article V

To the Freshmen we leave all the secrets of our high school years, that is those that concern getting along with teachers and making passing grades honestly. We also leave our sincere hopes that your high school years will be as happy as ours have been.

Article VI

To the following we leave a small part of ourselves as individuals, hoping that even though we are leaving, those remaining will have something by which to remember us.

I, Rebecca Allen, do will my title "Friendliest" to Evon Cox.

I, W. A. Brown, do leave my position on the football squad to Philip Ward and my height to Randy Brooks.

I, Patricia Burgess, do leave my cheerleading suit to Jane Craven.

I, Jackie Cates, do leave my big feet to Diane York.

I, Eddie Chriscoe, do leave my title "Neatest" and my job as Co-Captain of the Football Squad to Larry Burgess. My Triple A membership to anyone who feels he is qualified.

I, Annette Cox, do leave my love for "Tall Men" to Judy Burgess and my giggle to Betty Richardson.

We, Gerald Cox and Mike York, do leave our ability to slide into ditches and tear out clutches in our buses, the "Speed King" and the "Speed Queen", to Ronnie Cox and Larry Cox.

I, Martha Cox, do leave my Coleridge interest to Linda Caudle and my title "Most Athletic" to my namesake Martha Cox.

I, Wincey Cox, do will my love for black and white Fords to Barbara Brady, since her interest in them seems to be developing.

I, Martha Hodgin, do leave my pony tail to Faye Cain and my love for basketball to Susan Brady, hoping she won't have as many bruises as I did.

I, Jackie Jones, do leave my favorite spot at lunch time to Brenda Brewer and Milton Grose.

We, Pat Leonard and Douglas Sillmon do will our road map of Franklinville to Paul Stanley and our positions on the football squad to Larry Stout and James Brown.

I, Steve Siler, do leave my title "Mr. R.H.S." to Jim Smith, my title "Ten O'clock Scholar" to Joe York, and my Triple A membership to anyone who is qualified.

I, Bill Smith, do leave my height to my namesake Bill Smith and my title "Most Likely to Succeed" to Johnny Cox.

I, Katie Souther, do leave my love for Coleridge boys to Mildred Thomas and my title "Most Talkative" to Reba Kirkman.

I, Jack Welborn, do leave my ability to talk and get along with girls to David Cox and Phil Dixon, hoping they will use this ability well.

I, James Whitehead, do leave my nickname "Fat" to M. C. Coble and my position on the football squad to Donald Burgess.

I, Daile Wilson, do will my title "Quietest" to Jackie White, in hopes she deserves it more than I do.

I, Roger Woodell, do leave my title "Quietest" to Johnny Stinson.

I, Patty York, do leave my witty ways to Charlotte Macon and my map of Coleridge to anyone daring to risk using it.

I, Betty Lou Lineberry, do leave my title "Sweetest" to Pauline Poindexter and my position as guard on the basketball team to Rebecca Smith.

I, Linda Brady, do leave to Cynthia Leonard anything I have that would help her to get along better with all her male admirers.

We hereby appoint our class advisor, Mrs. Lane, as the sole executor of this our last will and testament. In her presence we do sign and seal this document on this, the twenty-third day of May in the year of 1958.

Class Prophecy

It is 1968 now, and here I am the first person ever to reach the moon by way of Vanguard, of course. Everything is so different up here. I wonder what's happening on the earth, where long ago I left my old Alma Mater.

Wait, what do I see? It seems to be something in the shape of a rocket ship. Yes, and it's landing! There's someone coming out of the ship. It is Jackie Cates, one of my old classmates, who finally found me - after ten years. She has been sailing around in outer space reminiscing. She brought me up to date on the rest of our classmates.

Mike York, the little man of the class, has just recorded his big hit, "Little Bittie Pretty One."

Linda Brady is now the editor of "The Ramseur Times."

Daile Wilson and Roger Woodell, living up to their title, "Quietest," are training mice in a rat circus.

Gerald Cox is still ditching it: this time not a school bus, but a trailer truck.

Wincey Cox is now cooking the coons her husband catches on his hunting trips.

Steve Siler has invented an automatic typewriter. The typewriter does the work; all he does is dictate.

Jackie Welborn is no longer saying, "I second the motion." He is now the president of the Ramseur Trucking Firm.

Betty Lou Lineberry has her own "Sweet Shoppe" located on the Coleridge Road.

Eddie Chriscoe, now Ed Gable, has the leading part in the movie, "Love 'em and Leave 'em".

Patricia Burgess is no longer yelling, "Go team, go", but, "No, no, no," to her four children, of course.

James Whitehead, "Nature Boy," has just invented a Push Pedal Singing Garbage Can, with a year supply of garbage, free without extra charge.

Martha Hodgin, always wanting some recreation during her high school days, has finished building "The Hodge Skating Rink," located on Cat's Corner.

Bill Smith is professor of psychology at Yale University.

Annette Cox is now the Mistress of Ceremonies on her new television show, "If at first you don't succeed, cry, cry, again."

Pat Leonard has a comic strip in "The Ramseur Times" which he calls, "The Life and Legend of Baby Face Sputnik."

Patty York is now a private secretary to The Cox Corporation located in Coleridge, no doubt.

W. A. Brown has just invented a new mouth wash for getting rid of nicotine odors on the breath. His slogan is, "Gargle now, it may be too late tomorrow."

Rebecca Allen, secretary to the F.B.I. in Washington, is trying to track down the number one bandit of the nation, Clem Sputnik III.

Doug Sillmon has just signed a contract with the Washington Red Skins.

Katie Souther owns a chain of beauty salons. Now she is famous for her special on peroxide hair.

Martha Cox is now coaching The All-girl Moon-Toafers Basketball Team.

These bits of information about my classmates brought back many pleasant memories of our school days. Each person in his own way had striven through those years in school to make his own little world a better place in which to live. It was so pleasing to hear of the success of my classmates, the graduating class of 1958.
